

The Devon & Cornwall Regional Awards

Devon & Cornwall Concrete Society have pleasure announcing their 2024 regional awards. The aim of these awards is to demonstrate excellence in the role, use application and design of concrete within the region.

WHY NOT ENTER THESE REGIONAL AWARDS?

Can you offer a great example of really good concrete in our region? If so then enter these awards and help us celebrate how this wonderful material is used in our Region.

Any project is eligible, whether it be large or small it's importance will be judged on qualities including innovation of use and materials, design, construction, appearance and performance. Examples can include civil engineering structures, ground engineering, commercial buildings, retail buildings, residential, educational, public, municipal and even monumental statements.
